At this event we will celebrate the spirit of volunteerism by recognizing and awarding $1,000 to community members or groups for their outstanding volunteer service in five different categories.

THE AWARD

We will celebrate those who have made a difference by offering countless hours of their time to causes important to them. On April 13, 2010 we would like to recognize these individuals by acknowledging their service, telling their stories and by offering a $1,000.00 award to be given to their Shawano County charity of choice during this event.
